

Sophomore Scholars in Residence

Renewal Support Form

This form should be completed by the faculty member's department chair (or, in the case of Leadership Studies, Law, or Continuing and Professional Studies, the dean). For staff with faculty status, both the supervisor of the staff member AND the department chair of the course-sponsoring department must complete a form.

Faculty Commitment

Faculty with an approved renewal will teach their SSIR course for one or two years, as part of their normal teaching load. The teaching commitment is a one-unit course in the fall semester, and a half-unit course in the spring semester. Faculty will also participate in the recruitment and selection activities that take place in the spring semester prior to their teaching.

Faculty are remunerated $7,500 for their participation in the Sophomore Scholars in Residence Program. There is no course release associated with a faculty member's renewal of their SSIR course.

Please print, complete and sign this form, and return it to Andrew Gurka, Director of Living-Learning Programs.
